Messrs Sainesbury & Howarth, the Salt Lake Photographers, after having a very deservedly successful run of business, are about to leave for pastures new.

St. George has rarely, if ever, been favored with gentlemen in this line, who were so well posted in all the details of the photographic art.

How they cater to the notions and opinions of the general public, giving in every case, entire satisfaction, we do not know or understand.

The other day we had the pleasure of visiting their studio and were extremely pleased with the artistic and life-like productions exhibited. We cheerfully recommend them to the patronage of the public.

Mr. Sainesbury is the only traveling photographer in the State, carrying a gold medal for best work.

Gentlemen, pay us another visit when convenient.

Wm. Atkin is having a touch of rheumatism, so bad he is hardly able to get around. Perhaps he has been living too high?

Washington Mill Co.
Now have a few fine Full Blood BERKSHIRE, and a few half-breed BERKSHIRE PIGS for sale. Put in your orders now. Prices reasonable.

Hons. Frank J. Cannon, Joseph L. Rawlins and William H. King will please accept our thanks for various documents received for our Library, all of which we find very interesting.

If you have an aching tooth have J. M. Gates pull it.

Hector McQuarrie is very feeble this week, but we hope he will soon recover.

New, fair sized potatoes are for sale at the residence of Emil Graf.

See advertisement of reduced rates from Milford to Salt Lake and return, for Jubilee, July 20 to 25, which will be found in another column. The rates are so low most all may now go.

Washington county will be represented at the Utah Pioneer Jubilee by a beautiful float, suitably decorated with many of the various products of the county, and we think from seeing some portions of it while in the course of construction, that it will be equal to any in the procession, as it is our home industries that need booming, more than anything else. Wares of the St. George Tanning & Mfg. Co., the Silk Association, the farmers, Mineral and other resources, &c., &c., all of which will make a fine display.

Mary, daughter of Selina and Aaron Nelson, of this city, departed this life June 19, 1897. She was born in St. George, Utah, September 7, 1870, was married to Harry Kemp, May 28, 1896, gave birth to a daughter on June 6, 1897, and passed to that great beyond as above stated.

The funeral services were held in the St. George Tabernacle on June 20, where consoling remarks were made and encouragements given to the bereaved family. We deeply sympathise with the bereaved and hope God our Heavenly father will help them to bear their burden.

Harvest is now in vogue at Springdale, Utah. The ground at that place, we are told, is dry, dry.

Last week a little boy of Israel Neilson's, of Washington, had his arm dislocated and was set by Dr. Afflect, and the boy was progressing finely at last account.

If you have any teeth you want filled go to J. M. Gates Dentist.

The Rio Virgen and the Santa Clara Creek are now very low. There is not enough water in the Santa Clara near the Rio Virgen to make one irrigating stream, so that the Bloomington folks will now have to revert their attention to the Rio Virgen for water, the balance of the summer.

Second cutting of lucern is now ready for gathering.

If you are thinking of buying a fire and burglar proof Safe, give J. W. Carpenter your orders, and get a Victor.

Early apples are now ready for eating, also apricots; early plums, curraents and raspberries. The prospects are good for an abundant crop of peaches, pears, the late plums, and grapes, all of which will be much appreciated after last years shortage.

Harvesting of the small cereals is in full blast and prospects are good for a fair yield which is causing our farmers to smile. Right here we might say, "Don't sell your wheat for a song and sing it yourself."

Crops generally look very promising this year.

Miss Leah Morris, daughter of Richard Alexander Morris met with an accident June 26, in which her elbow was dislocated, but it was put in place by Dr Afflect, and she will be all right again in a few days.

The people of Price, Washington Co., do not have to depend on a dam in the Rio Virgen, but have taken a canal out farther up the stream where they can get the water by putting a brush wing in the river.

Monitor: "If some of you thick rine and short recollection folks should happen to get mad because I want what you justly owe me, be sure you get mad enough to pay me."

An exchange says that apples may be kept two years by wrapping them in newspapers in such a way as to exclude the air. The newspaper, however must be one on which the subscription is paid in full or the dampness resulting from the "due" will cause the fruit to spoil.
